

any day from the time he was sentenced to the penitentiary; and if at the end of the month he has not been reformed, he shall be recorded against him, and he shall be sentenced to two additional days' imprisonment from his sentence; and if he shall continue to have no good record against him for a third month, his sentence shall be extended to five days; and if he shall be sentenced to five days' imprisonment of time from his sentence for each subsequent month he shall so continue in his sentence, until he shall be reformed; and if he shall waste the whole time of his sentence, he shall be sentenced to a certificate thereof from the warden, and upon presentation thereof to the court he shall be sentenced to the restoration of all rights of citizenship which may have been forfeited by his conviction; and it shall be the duty of the warden to discharge him from the penitentiary at the expiration of all rights of citizenship which he may have been served the time of his sentence less the number of days he may be sentenced to be in the penitentiary; and if he shall be sentenced to be in the penitentiary for a longer term than such certificate shall be made, provided that such certificate shall be guilty of the violation of the printed and published rules of the prison after he shall be discharged from the penitentiary, he shall be sentenced to a disposition of his term of imprisonment.

their discretion, such convict of a portion or all (according to the flagrancy of such violation of discipline,) of the diminution of the term of sentence, to which he had previously been by this act entitled; and the warden shall make known to the convict the reason

Sec. 21. The warden shall furnish to each prisoner sufficient light to enable him to read from the time he is shut up in the evening until the ringing of the bell for going to Reed 22. And provided always, that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to interfere with existing contracts for prison terms, or, unless by consent of parties, in the event of any change of the law, to annul the original contract and signed by the parties, which shall be binding in all respects as though no change had been made.

Reed 23. And whereas the laws and ordinances of this State, and of the several counties, cities, towns and villages, by-law, rules and regulations for the discipline and government thereof, and the duties, for himself and assistants, shall be so construed as not to interfere with the enforcement of such by-law, rules and regulations; provided, always, that such by-law, rules and regulations shall not be contrary to the laws and ordinances of this State, and such by-law, rules and regulations to the legislature at each session thereof; and provided, always, that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to deprive the officers of the Ohio Penitentiary from holding office, or from appointing until their successors in office shall be appointed and qualified.

Reed 24. The warden and directors may employ such persons as may be working the convict labor upon any branch of business as, in their

Sec. 25. The hospital of the penitentiary shall, under such conditions as the directors, warden and physician may provide, be accessible to the professors and students of provided that no convict shall be subjected by such professors to any involuntary examination or surgical operation.

and warden to suitably reward at their discretion, any prisoner who by meritorious conduct may signally serve the interests of the institution or the State; and may permit any extra reward to be given to prisoners, not interfering with the interests of the

Sec. 27 That in every case in which a new warden for the penitentiary shall be appointed, the warden whose term of office shall be expired, shall deliver over to his successor a true and correct inventory of the penitentiary building, with all the property of the State in his possession, together with the convicts; and it shall be the duty of such successor to receive the same, and to sign a receipt for the property and convicts aforesaid; the warden whose term of office shall have expired, shall also make out, under oath, a true and correct statement of the receipts and expenditures of the penitentiary during his last annual report, or that have not been reported to the auditor of State at any time during his term of office; also a true inventory of the convicts then in the penitentiary in his possession as such warden, belonging to the State, consisting of raw materials and manufactured articles, medicines, and other articles of value, which are provided for the penitentiary, and shall deliver the same over to his successor, together with all moneys on hand, stating in full the sources of the same, and the manner in which each source; it shall be the duty of the successor warden to give his predecessor in office his receipt for such property and moneys as aforesaid; and shall deliver over to him the same aforesaid; and shall refuse or neglect to comply with any of the provisions of this section, he shall be held guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the county jail for any period not less than one month, nor more than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Sec. 28. That whenever any bond is resions of this act, every such contracting party shall file his said bond with the said warden and directors at the time of putting in such proposals or bids for each contract, which said bond shall be in such sum as the said warden and directors shall direct.

Sac. 20. That the act entitled "an act providing for the appointment and a more thorough system of accountability of officers of the Ohio penitentiary, fixing their compensation, prescribing their duties, and determining the manner of working the convicts," passed April 12, 1868, and all laws visions of this act are hereby repealed, and the terms of all persons now holding office under the provisions of the acts hereby repealed shall expire upon the appointment and qualification of the officers, whose terms of office are provided for in this act.

Succ. 30. This act to take effect from and after its passage.

RICHARD C. PARSONS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
ROBERT G. KIRK,
President of the Senate.

Passed March 24, 1880.

---

AN ACT
Supplementarily to an act entitled "an act for the support and better regulation of Common Schools in the town of Akron," passed February 8, 1847.

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GEN-

the board of examiners for any city, town or village which has adopted the above recited act, and the acts amendatory thereto, shall state in the certificates they issue to teachers the period of time for which said certificate shall be valid, which period shall not be less than six months nor more than two years, and no certificate shall be valid for any other period than that named in it.

each in any of the public schools of said city, town or village without such certificate, or for any other time than that specified in said certificate.

Sec. 3. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

RICHARD C. PARSONS,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
ROBERT C. KIRK,
President of the Senate.
Passed March 19, 1860.

AN ACT

To amend section one of an Act entitled "an act to provide for the Collection of Claims against Steamboats and other Water Crafts, and authorizing proceedings against the same by name," passed April 12, 1858.